ALL THE WORLD IS SACRED

Peter Kearney's second album of songs especially for children. A favourite with catechists because of its informal, child-friendly presentation of religious themes.

"It is refreshing to find a CD such as 'All The World Is Sacred' in which just about every song has a use in the classroom and school". (Suzanne Schmidt)

SIXTEEN TRACKS including: When I Pray; Who's That?; Looking for the Seed; Dry Bones; Living in the Land of Australia; Then We Go in Your Peace; Mary in Black (On Mary MacKillop); All Thank God; A Bridge in the Sky (The Rainbow).

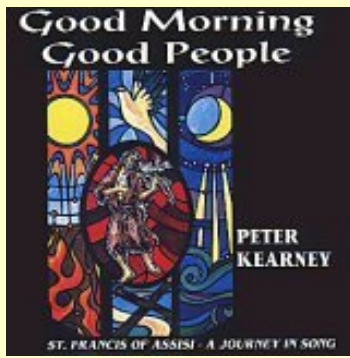

THE COMMON GOOD

Songs of compassion and justice

"These songs see the presence of God in the ordinary things of life... They recognise the pain and joys of life, common struggles and successes and the simple yearning of people to know where God is to be found. Whether a song of justice, the celebration of welcome for a new baby (We Welcome This Child) or a scathing critique of the human denial of God (The Search), these songs find me in the mess I call my normal life." (Rev. Dr. Kim Miller, Anglican Priest)

TWELVE TRACKS including: The Song Behind the Songs; The Common Good; We Welcome this Child; Father Mother God; God of the Mess; Mercy is One of God's Names

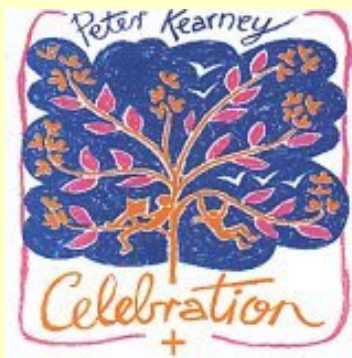

GOOD MORNING GOOD PEOPLE—Double CD

St. Francis of Assisi—A Journey in Song
